

*BX CREEK WETLAND ENHANCEMENT
& INTERPRETIVE TRAIL PROJECT*

*RIVERS DAY 2011
FREE PUBLIC TOUR*

Join Us

Allan Brooks Nature Centre invites residents to experience the new interpretive trail along BX Creek and reclaimed wetland in North Vernon Park. Interpreters will provide guided public tour of the trail and wetland ecosystem.

This event is part of the BX Creek Wetland Enhancement and Interpretive Trail Project, 2010-2012. Come celebrate nature!

Sunday September 25, 2011.

Tour Time: 2:00 pm

Location: Deleenheer Road & 20th Street (road behind Walmart).

To register for this guided tour, please telephone Allan Brooks Nature Centre at 250-260-4227

Credit: Fiona Forshaw

Financial Supporters of Allan Brooks Nature Centre Society in this project.

This project is being undertaken with the financial support of the Government of Canada provided through the Department of the Environment. This project received additional funding from the RBC Blue Water Community Grant, the Public Conservation Assistance Fund and the Okanagan Collaborative Conservation Program. The views expressed herein are solely those of Allan Brooks Nature Centre Society.

In-kind Supporters.

North Okanagan Naturalists' Club
Golder Associates
Regional District of the North Okanagan
City of Vernon
KISS FM
Outdoor Discoveries
Beachcomber Home Leisure
SDL Environmental Consulting
UBCO
Ducks Unlimited